

Anjum Emanuel

Keynote Speaker & Certified Brain Coach

Biography

Anjum's story is one of resilience and transformation. Arriving in the UK at age 12 without speaking any English, he faced bullying and left school with no qualifications. He worked every job imaginable - from takeaways to taxi driving - but refused to let that define him. Through perseverance and developing a growth mindset, Anjum earned three university degrees and built a 20+ year corporate career. Now a Certified Brain Coach and keynote speaker, he empowers audiences to break through barriers and unlock their full potential. His interactive, high-energy talks leave a powerful & lasting impact.
